

PROVOST AND VICE PRESIDENT FOR ACADEMIC AFFAIRS

Kennesaw State University invites applications and nominations for the position of Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs.

A leader in innovative teaching and learning, Kennesaw State University offers more than 150 undergraduate, graduate and doctoral degrees to its more than 35,000 students. With 13 colleges on two metro Atlanta campuses, Kennesaw State is a member of the University System of Georgia, the third-largest University in the state, and one of the 50 largest public institutions in the country. The University has an R3 classification – a doctoral institution with moderate research activity – by the Carnegie Classification of Institutions of Higher Learning.

Chartered in 1963 by the Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia, Kennesaw State has become a destination campus, where more than 5,200 students live in eight distinctive residential communities on campuses in Kennesaw and Marietta. The University's vibrant campus culture, diverse population, strong global ties and entrepreneurial spirit draw students from throughout the region and from 92 countries across the globe. The University's alumni network is 100,000 strong.

Reporting to the President, the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs is the chief academic officer of the University. The Provost is responsible for all aspects of the University's academic mission, including the intellectual environment for faculty, students and staff, and planning, budgeting, supervising, and reviewing programs in instruction, research, and continuing education. The direct reports to the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs, including the Deans of KSU's 13 colleges, the Senior Associate Vice President for Academic Affairs, and the Associate Vice President for Curriculum, provide assistance and support to the Provost in carrying out these duties.

The selected candidate will possess an earned terminal degree and appropriate credentials to be tenured in one of the University's academic departments. The next Provost will have demonstrated successful academic administrative experience and a leadership style that is collaborative, transparent, and engages faculty, students and staff. The search committee is seeking individuals with exemplary interpersonal and communication skills, commitment to the goals of diversity and inclusion, and an appreciation of the role and mission of a large, comprehensive, and ascending public university.

While applications and nominations will be accepted until a new Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs is selected, interested parties are encouraged to submit their materials to our consultant at the address below by October 5, 2018 to assure optimal consideration. Applications should include a resume and letter of interest.
